

Trail Highlight: Lower Bell Canyon Trail

An ongoing series

Spring is here and this is a great time to hike the Bell Canyon Trail. This hike offers rewarding views of Sandy, the Oquirrh mountains, and the Great Salt Lake. Upon completion, you will find the hidden Bell Canyon Reservoir. This trail takes you into the foothills of the Wasatch Mountains so be sure to follow all watershed restrictions. There are two trailheads available to complete this hike, at 10245 S. Wasatch Blvd. and at 3470 E. Little Cottonwood Road. From either trailhead, the hike to the reservoir is a half mile with about a 575 foot rise in elevation. The trail has sections of loose soil and steep terrain so be sure to wear appropriate footwear and bring plenty of water. This is a wonderful, accessible trail for sampling the beauty of the Wasatch Front.

Lower Bell Canyon Trail

Boulders Trailhead on Wasatch Blvd

Bell Canyon Reservoir

Family night at the skate park

Family night at the skate park is great fun for the whole family! Family night takes place at Lone Peak Park, 10140 South 700 East, from 6 to 8 p.m. on the second Monday of the month from May through September (excluding July). All activities are free and children must be accompanied by a parent/guardian. Bikes, Rollerblades, and skateboards are welcome.

On May 8, join us for the "Safety Helmet Giveaway." Fifty helmets will be given away and additional helmets will be available to purchase for only $5. The helmet giveaway is sponsored by the Healthy Sandy Partnership and Sandy City.

